Memo

Docket No 504 dated 10th Sept. 91 from the Dy Commr Mysore Dist. forwarding the records connected with the Inam lands attached to the Rama Devarn temple at Bannur, Tirumakudlu Narsipur Taluk.

The extract of the Inam Register shews that the Inam land in question was granted for personal use that it is Deva daya that it was in the enjoyment of the temple that in the Jari account the name of the then Parichariek was mentioned that as it was classed under personal Inam the quit-rent should necessarily be be charged and that it should be confirmed on 1/8 quit-rent viz annas 8 under Rule VI of the Land Inam Rules and that it was resumed in 1881 as the temple was in disrepair & the Puja therein was discontinued

2. The Ver. records shew that the assessment on the Inam land is Rs. 4-5-10 and not Rs. 4-8-0 as per Inam accounts of 1855 that in the accounts of Prajotpati (1811-12) no Inam is entered for Parichariké service that in the accounts of Thara (1831-32) and Ananda (1854-55) the land is entered as Inam granted for Parichariké service out of Brahmadaya that the Inam land previous to its resumption resumption in 1881 was in the profession and enjoyment of one Appavu Iyengar Parichariek of the temple and that it was not at any time in the enjoyment of the temple

3. Late Ashtagram Taluk Amildar's report No. 162 dated 6th May/81 also shews that the Inam land was granted for Parichariki service only

4. The following is the description of the Inam land now under reference: ———

Extent — Assessment = Amt-R
7-11-0 — 025-4-0 — 25-4-
Wet 4-12-1 — 4-5-10 — 4-8-.

5. On the 7th January/87, Anantachary, Parichari, deposed before the Amildar of the Srirangam Taluk that it was inconvenient to him to go to Bangalore and and do Parichariek service, that the Inam land was in the enjoyment of his family since the time of his ancestors that half of the produce thereof might be paid to the man rendering Parichariek service in the temple hereafter that the other half might be paid to him that the payment of the assessment now imposed on the Inam land might be exempted and that quitrent & Local cess might be fixed in lieu thereof.

6. Mudgal officer's Yadi No. 20 dated 24th April 190 (addressed to the Dy Commr.) shews that the repairs of the cook room (kitchen) of the temple have not yet been completed. Amildar's report to the effect that the temple has has been completely repaired is necessary as also a Muchalika on a due stamp paper from the Adhicks and the villagers binding themselves to be responsible to keep the temple always in good order and to have the services therein performed regularly.

Submitting for orders correspondence regarding the restoration of the Inam land and ready money allowance attached to the Rama Devaru temple at Bannur in the Ashtagram Talnk.

It is observed from the correspondence received with the above that the Inam land and the ready money allowance attached to the Institution were resumed during the Inam settlement on the ground that the worship of 5 or 6 years and that the repairs required to the Institution were not carried out.

2. It appears from the Amildar's Report No 234 dated 2nd February 82 that the inhabitants of the village have agreed to execute the necessary repairs to the temple at their own cost.

It is expedient to revive a grant which was discontinued several years ago owing the villagers having failed to maintain the institution in proper order and he now ~~The Dy Collector is requested to report whether the inhabitants of the village would undertake to carry out the necessary repairs themselves as per Annexure of Govt Circular~~ But on receipt of such report perhaps be made in the case under notice provided, the ~~agreed before the Amildar, or whether they would in case of their inability to pay the whole cost contribute at least a moiety of the estimated cost as per instructions laid down in para 6 of Circular No 4 dated 3rd October 81.~~ villagers undertake the entire cost of repairing the temple and the restoration of the money allowance & the grant will be considered until this is done. The payment of the arrears of the allowance will not be sanctioned.

~~The Dy Collector is further requested to state~~ what sum it would cost to carry out the necessary repairs to the temple and what amount of arrears is ~~now~~ accumulated since the resumption of its allowance. The enclosure is returned.

Dated Mysore 29 May 1890.

To,

The Chief Secretary to the Govt
of Mysore

Sir,

With reference to the Secretary to the Dewan's docket No $\frac{2266}{96}$ dated 26th June 1882, regarding the restoration of the Inam land and ready money allowance attached to Ramadevara temple at Bannur in Sirum: Narsipur Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Muzrai Officer reports in his yadi, as per margin, that during the last year's Jamabandi of the Taluk he personally inspected the temple and found it thoroughly repaired by the villagers at their own cost, that the worship of the deity is being regularly performed and that, therefore, the restoration of the Inam land, and the ready money allowance attached to the institution may be ordered. The Muzrai Officer also recommends that the payment of the arrears of the allowance, due from November 1881, may be paid as Puja to the deity is reported to be done since that time.

I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for the above.

The Muzrai Officer's yadi above alluded to and to enclosures are herewith submitted for reference.
